Workday Cloud-Based Applications Ranked 2018 Best in KLAS
Enterprise Resource Planning and Category Leader—Talent Management

When healthcare providers search for the best in their technology solutions, they look to KLAS ratings, the standard by which thousands of healthcare provider organizations evaluate vendor performance. Workday is pleased to announce that our clients have ranked us as the highest-performing cloud-based vendor in the Best in KLAS—ERP market segment for 2018, and named us Category Leader—Talent Management. KLAS’ rigorous research of real-world performance based on end-user data is renowned in the healthcare industry. So when healthcare providers evaluate information systems, they know they can trust KLAS.

“Best in KLAS is more than a ranking. It is a recognition of vendors committed to delivering superior solutions. It gives voice to thousands of providers who are demanding better performance, usability, and interoperability in healthcare technology.”

—Adam Gale, President, KLAS
