

Workday Success Plans

Guidance, education, and expertise when you need it.

It's no secret that the more you use and adopt Workday, the more value you gain. The Workday Success Plans are designed to help you do just that. These subscription-based plans provide a mix of education, tools, and expertise to inspire you and your teams to use Workday more effectively as the needs of your business evolve.

Whether you need training on how to manage Workday on your own or one-to-one guidance, the Workday Success Plans help you boost productivity and get the most out of Workday.

The Workday Success Plans help you to:

- Transition your team to use Workday by providing access to training and change management resources
- Stay on track to meet your business objectives with an actionable feature adoption blueprint and guidance on alignment
- Personalize your path by determining the service or tool you need, when you need it
- Make the most out of Workday releases by preparing for the new features and learning how to take advantage of them
- Prepare for all the significant events on your journey by understanding how to best use Workday, including open enrollment, performance reviews, compensation reviews, and more

What are the advantages of participating in this program?

By taking advantage of the Workday Success Plans, you can:

- Help your organization use Workday more effectively by selecting the right mix of guidance and resources best suited for your business
