

Increase the value of your Workday investment

Investing in Workday training goes beyond upskilling –
it's about preparing for the future.

Our training ensures that in-house teams can work smarter, adapt faster, and fully leverage Workday's capabilities to drive long-term success.

Our training enables you to:

Establish a scalable system

Own your Workday
environment

Optimise design decisions

Support administrative needs

Implement new features strategically

Training to Fit Every Role

In-Depth

Administrator Training

Every team needs a skilled expert. They're the go-to people who know the ins and outs of your system – from today's deployment to tomorrow's enhancements.

Our fee-based courses focus on teaching these core administrators in-depth knowledge. They're also the ideal candidates to validate their expertise with a Workday Pro certification.

Just-in-time Resources for Business Users

Once live, you need support for the people who keep the lights 24 hours a day / 7 days a week. These individuals use Workday to support daily transactional activities but aren't responsible for system configuration.

Our free on-demand Workday in Action video libraries provide business users with the practical resources they need right on the Workday Community.

Resources to Get Your Employees & Managers Engaged

Your company has implemented the leading AI-powered HR and Financial software and it's time to get your teams up to speed and excited for the bright days of work ahead.

Our Adoption Kit is designed so your implementation teams can download, customise and share pre-made resources to help with manager and employee adoption of Workday.

Inspiring Content for Executives

Inspire your executives with Workday's leading practices and collaboratively shape a future-forward vision for your business.

Our Executive Briefing Series is designed to define what's possible and help your business harness the power of Workday.

Let's plan for the future – together

When you're ready to unlock your team's full potential, we've got resources to help you make a comprehensive training plan.
